

CITY BEAUTIFUL.

By MARTIN TURNBULL.

There are only two streams in the whole world where the waters sing, one is the river Loire in France. The people, of course, cling to the tradition that the music is mysterious and reverberates the chant of nature's heroes as their souls passed to the Great Beyond. Maybe so, who knows? Hurry on, our port is an industrial center, the paths to the shipyards are straight. Zigzagging is a thing of the past.

The "abating of all nuisances," is the chief function of a progressive community. This includes parrots, moon-struck dogs, old barn owls, microbes and knockers.

Nature has bestowed on Pascagoula a generous favor. The dazzling bay which washes its shores with saline billows; the cerulean canopy of heaven poised over its industrious population, the inexhaustible wealth of raw material—the resinous pine, the many species of valuable oak, so useful for ship construction, the treasures of soil, an accumulation of resources, that promises to make the port a magnificent commercial city.

If your wisdom is very wise, build a hotel and advertise.

Everyone embraces you in France. Isn't that nice, tout a vous, take a chance.

"Paradise garden," would be a suitable name for a new public park somewhere on or near the beach. Are there no philanthropists here, who would donate a site for a square? Think of the loving pairs and the good mothers and kiddies, who would come there and disport themselves amid the palms, the flower-beds and the trees.

I wish I was a tarpon to cruise along the coast, I'd attack a submarine and be a sport. By the way the tarpon grounds lie off Fontainebleau point.

Pascagoula's pledge to the nation's full measure of man, woman, child, steam, electric, house, cow, goat, water and gas power—resources of land and gulf. Amen!

NOTICE.

It having been reported to me that catalog houses are offering to sell wheat flour without substitutes, the public is hereby warned that the sale or purchase of wheat flour, except on the 50-50 plan is prohibited, and that violators will be prosecuted. It is also a violation of law to purchase over 6 lbs. per person per month, or to have over 30 days supply on hand.

"MY FOUR YEARS IN GERMANY."

The film version of "My Four Years in Germany," which is a dramatization of ex-Ambassador James W. Gerard's book of the same name, will be shown at the Warfield theatre, Monday, Aug. 26.

The picture is the strongest kind of win the war propaganda. The characters playing the principal parts, such as the Kaiser, the Crown Prince, Hindenburg and von Tirpitz, are true to life, and the impersonation of every character is extremely good.

What the Germans did to Belgium and to Northern France is shown with marvelous and realistic fidelity to fact. Ambassador Gerard's visits to the German prison camps are also pictured in a manner that leaves no doubt that he was equal to many trying occasions. It is the kind of picture that will awaken many to the realization of what has gone on and is going on, and how the German machine works.

Contrary to expectations, the picture does not end when Mr. Gerard is handed his passport, after having told a pompous German official that he would "stay in Germany till Hell freezes over." Before he would sign an agreement to permit all the interned German ships in America to depart.

The departing Americans were assured that "no one was afraid of America." Immediately there flashed on the screen the words: "After five months, Kaiser, after five months," and endless columns of American troops, fully equipped and ready for battle, were shown swinging along through the streets of London and Paris.

STATEMENT FROM MAYOR.

Pascagoula, Miss., August 13, 1918. As the outcome of a mass meeting held at the county courthouse here, Monday night, at which condemnatory speeches were made reflecting on the mayor and board of aldermen, because of the loss to Pascagoula of one of the steel plants, lack of proper sanitation, housing facilities, etc. Mayor Forrest J. Johnson issued the following card to the public:

"Co-ordination thou art a jewel. There are many things in life that are worth doing and in order to make a good showing one must have the co-operation of the strong and weak to gain success. The strong because it requires power to move a mountain; the weak to encourage by sanction the actions of their superiors in physical and monetary standing. A community can not thrive on talk and conversation, nor can it thrive on selfish motives.

"Without the help of the moneyed men and property owners of the city of Pascagoula, it is absolutely out of the question to make this a 'City Beautiful.' Fictitious values, high rents, real estate speculations must go by the board until there is a secure foundation on which to stand. Just at the present time, a time that each and every patriot should throw aside self and do his part toward winning the war, the hand of liberality should be extended to industry and the open palm ready to grasp the surplus and living-hard-earned gains of the newcomer be closed."

"Generosity" should be Pascagoula's slogan, the capitalist and laborer should be equally considered in the struggle to develop and advance the welfare of this favored spot. It behooves all of our worthy citizens to contribute a fair share of their holdings, both prosperity and profits toward benefitting the future stability of the port.

"This is the co-ordination that should be tendered to men at the helm of city affairs. Think it over and do unto others as you would have them do unto you. If there is any onus it is on the profiteer."

The first Baptist church at a special business session on last Wednesday night made a partial report through the pastor and the chairman of the building committee, Mr. W. J. Morris, covering their new building, which is nearing completion. The report shows that up to date all bills have been paid, and the indications are that they will be able to complete the building without a dollar's indebtedness on the work. This has been a remarkably successful effort, and when the building is completed it will be a credit to our city, as well as give accommodation to several hundred worshippers who attend this church each Sunday. It is now being used by the general public, and it is believed that all finishing touches will be put on it within two weeks.

W.S.S.

SERVICES WILL BE HELD AT THE FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH ON NEXT SUNDAY AS FOLLOWS:

Sunday school at 10:00 a. m.; divine worship at 11 a. m.; the B. Y. P. U. will meet at 7:30 p. m., and the night services will be at 8:30 p. m. At the morning service the subject will be: "God's Temple in Humanity." At night the subject will be: "The Last Night in Sodom." All are invited to attend. Rev. D. W. Boswell, pastor.

SEYMOUR-MUFFET.

Miss Hilda Seymour, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. N. R. Seymour, and Mr. James Muffet were married on Sunday evening at 6:30 o'clock at the rectory of the Catholic church in Gulfport, Rev. Father Spengler officiating at the ceremony.

The marriage of this popular young couple came as a surprise to their many friends here, and was the result of a sudden decision reached on last Sunday afternoon, when Miss Seymour accompanied her aunt, Mrs. Dick White, to Ocean Springs for a visit with relatives. Mr. Muffet joined the party at Pascagoula, and while on the journey to Ocean Springs arrangements were made to have the marriage solemnized on Sunday evening, instead of later in the month as previously arranged.

Mr. and Mrs. Muffet spent until Monday in Ocean Springs, returning then to Pascagoula, where Mrs. Muffet will await the return of Mr. Muffet, who is mate on the schooner "Delta," when they will go to Baltimore, and from there to Sydney, Nova Scotia to visit his relatives.

AGE NO BAR.

Everywhere We Hear Good Reports of Doan's Kidney Pills.

Pascagoula is no exception. Every section of the U. S. resounds with praise of Doan's Kidney Pills. Fifty thousand persons are giving testimony in their home newspapers. The sincerity of these witnesses, the fact that they live so near, is the best proof of the merit of Doan's. Here's a Pascagoula case.

L. L. Dolberg, retired captain, Dupont Ave., says: "Working on the water all of my life and being exposed to all kinds of weather, brought on kidney trouble in my old age. I suffered from backaches and rheumatic pains a great deal. My back got lame and sore and pained so severely, I could hardly straighten after stooping. Rheumatic twinges shot through my limbs and muscles. The kidney secretions passed too freely and were highly colored. About a year ago I used Doan's Kidney Pills, as I had always heard how good they were and several boxes completely cured me."

Price 60c. at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Dolberg had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfgs., Buffalo, N. Y.

FOREST AND PRAIRIE FIRES.

New Orleans, La., Aug. 10, 1918.

Editor Chronicle:

The fall and winter season is fast approaching when disastrous prairie and forest fires prove so very destructive to the owners of both small and large land holdings near and adjacent to the large trunk line railroad systems.

Our lands are adjoining the Louisville & Nashville Railroad tracks. Last winter, as you will likely remember, we suffered to a great extent by fires that originated on the L. & N. right of way, through lack of spark arrestors.

If there is no state law compelling the use of such device on locomotives of public carriers, it is possible that our county can afford some relief. If you will kindly use your efforts in behalf of the tax payers of Jackson county I am confident it will be very much appreciated.

The L. & N. R. uses about the cheapest and poorest grade of coal obtainable, of any railroad system in the south.

Anyone who will take the trouble to examine the coal in their bins, both at New Orleans, Bay St. Louis and Mobile, will be convinced that it is almost criminal negligence to allow the use of such slag without having spark arrestors on every engine of their system. On railroad systems where a better and larger grade of coal is used, also, where spark arrestors are adopted and where mostly fuel oil is used are almost wholly free of prairie and forest fires.

It seems to me the Director General of railroads should be appealed to for relief. There should be a law on the statute books of every state, protecting owners of land and property against destruction by fire caused by sparks from locomotives. Out West the U. S. Government protects with their armed and fire equipped forest rangers all timber and other lands. Won't you make a fight along these lines through the columns of your valued journal, with a view to bettering not alone the conditions of your readers, but for the good of humanity and the South. I am confident if you will persist in the advocacy of some such relief we will before long place ourselves in line with the rest of the country where such occurrences are an exception, not the rule.

These fires spread with such rapidity that it is almost useless to attempt to control them. They consume our turpentine timber like tinder. It is an unbearable hardship and absolutely an injustice to the timber and land holder. It offers no inducement for a person to own such holdings.

Yours very truly,

T. W. KRACKE.
